

CITY OF KETCHIKAN – MAYOR AND COUNCIL HISTORY

The City of Ketchikan was incorporated as the “Town of Ketchikan” on August 25, 1900 by Order of Election Board: “...the Board of Election aforesaid do declare that 103 votes were cast in all: -- that of said number 82 were for incorporation and 18 against incorporation, 3 not voting; that the seven persons receiving the highest number of votes for councilmen were the following: J.W. Stedman, J.R. Heckman, Harry Inman, M.M. Hopkins, R. Boyd Young, M.E. Martin, and Robert Allison; that as said election the following persons were elected to constitute the school board of said corporation; F.J. Hunt, J.R. Beegle and J.H. Garrett.”

Those elected served for one-year terms until 1919, when they became two-year staggered terms. In 1958 those elected began to serve three-year terms. The City of Ketchikan was incorporated in October of 1960 as a home rule municipality under the laws of the newly formed State of Alaska. Seven councilmembers and a mayor were elected for three-year terms each.
